MISSION AND FUNCTIONS OF
NAVAL CONSOLIDATED BRIG, CHARLESTON, SC

MISSION

To ensure the security, good order, discipline, and safety of pre-trial and post-trial prisoners, to retrain and restore the maximum number of personnel to honorable service, to prepare prisoners for return to civilian life as productive citizens; and when directed by appropriate authority; provide dedicated facilities for non-Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ) detainees.

FUNCTIONS

1. Serve as a Department of Defense (DoD) Level II confinement facility for DoD male prisoners, providing a secure, safe and humane environment for prisoners and staff according to the U.S. Code, applicable DoD, Department of the Navy, and Navy correctional regulations, and standards of the American Correctional Association.
2. Maintain a high level of military discipline within brig operations.
3. Classify prisoners for restoration to active duty or for discharge from military service and return to civilian life.
4. Provide resources and an environment which allows prisoners to:
  - a. serve sentence imposed by the court;
  - b. fulfill individual responsibilities; and
  - c. complete plans for restoration to duty or to return to civilian life.
5. Operate retraining programs which include work; academic, vocational, military, and physical training; social skills and motivation; individual and group counseling; substance abuse (drug and alcohol) treatment programs; religion; and brig industries.

1 5 APR 2013

6. Provide required reports to and assist Commander, Navy Personnel Command in gathering and evaluating data concerning administration, operations, programs, and management of the consolidated brig.
7. Provide military escort services for adjudged prisoners, deserters, and supervise released violators when required.
8. When appropriately staffed, support non-UCMJ detention requirements per guidance from the President via the Secretary of Defense.
